ASPCA
WE ARE THEIR VOICE!

7. These pajamas from Jammies By Helene Laure (jammiesforbabies.com) are a must-have for baby. Sizing varies from 0 to 9 months and includes an "Up to 7lbs" size so moms can dress their smallest bundle of joy with well-fitted pajamas. These super-soft jammies come in an adorable and recyclable jam jar tied with a bow. Ten percent of the profit from Jammies is donated to Postpartum Progress, an organization dedicated to helping mothers and babies who struggle with postpartum depression.

8. From Manhattan Toy Company (888/234-5450 or manhattantoy.com), these rattles are made for baby to click, grasp and squeak. The collection of six adorable animals are all made of wood and have a non-toxic water-based finish.

9. Bebe Au Lait's (408/356-7850 or bebeaulait.com) Nursing Covers are carried in hospital gift shops nationwide. They feature an open neckline so mom can make sure that baby is properly latched, but they still offer privacy to breastfeed while doctors, nurses and family and friends come in and out of the hospital room. The gift is not only functional for new moms, but the prints are stylish as well.

10. The HALO SleepSack wearable blanket and (888/999-4256 or halosleep.com) is a favorite baby registry and baby shower item. It replaces loose blankets in the crib that can become a breathing hazard to baby. In fact, the American Academy of Pediatrics recommends the use of a wearable blanket as part of its safe sleep tips. Hospital personnel are also using the HALO SleepSack Swaddle in more than 1,100 hospitals around the country.

11. The You-Hoo Plush Alligator from Lamb's & Ivy (800/345-2627 or lambsviv.com) measures approximately 9 by 10 by 6 inches and is made of 100-percent polyester with a 100-percent polyester fiberfill
